

misconstrued.

A Seasonable Argument 7
To Perswade

All the Grand Juries in England, to Petition for

A
New Parliament.

OR,

A LIST

OF THE

PRINCIPAL LABOURERS in the Great
Design of Popery and Arbitrary Power; Who have Betrayed their Country to the Conspirators, and Bargain'd with them to Maintain a Standing Army in England, under the Command of the Bigotted Popish
D. Who by the Assistance of the L. L's Scotch Ar- my, the Forces in Ireland, and those in France, hopes to bring all Back to ROME.

Veritas non querit Angulos.
Nunc Omnia Roma Venalia.

Amsterdam, Printed in the Year, 1677.

A Seasonable Argument

To

All the Grand Jurors in England, to be chosen for

A

New Parliament.

OR

A. L. L. S. T.

OF THE

PRINCIPAL LABOURERS in the Kingdom of Great Britain, who have Betrayed their Country to the Gain of their own pockets, and have sold the Liberties of the People to the Hands of a few Avaricious

Men, who by the Assistance of the Army and Navy, have kept the People in Slavery, and have sold the Liberties of the People to the Hands of a few Avaricious
Men.

Veritas non quæritur
Tunc Omnia Roma Veritas.

Amsterdam, Printed in the Year, 1677.

111
Shirley Secretary, and has got by Boonies at several times 1600

A Seasonable Argument to perswade all the Grand Juries in England, to Petition for A New Parliament.

Buckinghamshire.

A LIST of the Principal Labourers in the Great Design of POPERY and ARBITRARY POWER, &c.

Bedford.

 J. R. Humphrey Wrench, Baronet; hath from the Court, 500 l. per annum Sallery; and was of the Council of Trade for Plantations.
S

Berkshire.

Windsor. Sir Thomas Higgons, Knight; hath a Pension of 500 l. per annum, and hath had 4000 l. in Gifts; Married to the Earle of Bathes Sister.

X Sir Francis Warrington, Knight; Solicitor General to the King; which place is worth 1500 l. per annum.

Reading. Sir Thomas Doleman, has 200 l. per annum Pension; and was assisted by the Court in the Cheating Will; whereby he got Quarles his Estate, valued at 16000; now Clerk of the Council, which is worth 500 l. per annum; and is promised to be Secretary of State.

Richard Aldwyerth, Esquire, Auditor in the Exchequer, which is worth 400 l. per annum, he is also the Arch-Bishops

[4]

Bishops Secretary, and has got by Boones, at several times, 3000 l.

Wallingford. Sir John Boones, Knight of the Bath, has got of the poor indigent Cavaliers money 26000 l. and other-ways near 40000 l. more.

Buckingham-Shire.

Sir Richard Temple Commissioner of the Customs, which is worth 1200 l. per annum.

Buckingham Town. Sir William Smith, as honest as Sir
Richard Temple.

Chipping Wicham. Sir Robert Savvyer, a Lawyer, of as ill reputation as his Father; has had for his attendance this Session, 1000 l. and is promised (as he insinuates) to be Attorney-General, and Speaker of the House of Commons.

Agmondisham. Sir William Drake, Barronet, under the Command of his Father-in-Law the Chief Barron Montague, who enjoys 1500 l. per annum during the Kings pleasure.

Sir Wm. Brampton

Cambridg-Shire.

Sir Thomas Hatton, a man of no Estate but his Pension.

Sir Thomas Chishley, Master of the Ordnance, and has had 2000 l. given him, and the Reversion of his Place to his Son.

University. Sir Charles Wheeler, a Foot-Captain, who once promised himself to be Master of the Rolls, now Governour of Mevis.

Town of Cambridge. William Lord Allington in debt very much; a Court-Pensioner, and in hopes of a White Staffe. A Cully.

Che-Shire.

Thomas Chelmodly. Promised a great Place at Court, but not only deceived, but laught at, poor Gentleman.

Chester.

Chester. Robert Warden, Esquire, a betrayer of the Old Cavaliers (with Willis) and of Sir George Booth; the Duke of York's Creature, and Gentleman of his Bed-Chamber, Cornwall.

Sir Jonath. Trelavny, Barronet, one that is known to have sworn himself into 4000 at least in his account of the Prize-Office. Controller to the Duke, and has got in Gratuities to the value of 10000 l. besides what he is promised for being an Informer.

Sir John Compton, Barronet, a Commissioner of the Prizes, and besides, a Patentee for setting up Lights upon the Sea-Coast.

Lanceston. Sir Charles Harbord, Surveyor General has got 100000 l. of the King and Kingdom; he was formerly a Solicitor of Staples-Inn, till his lewdness and poverty brought him to Court.

Les'card. Bernard Greenvil, Esquire, a Bed-Chamber-Man, has got in Boons at several times 20000 l.

Helfton. Sidney Godolphin, Esquire, a Bed-Chamber-man.

Sir William Godolphin, Barronet, had 1200 l. per annum out of the Fee-farm Rents, and Governour of Scilly Island.

Truro. John Arundel, Esquire, his Father from a small fortune, raised to be a Lord, and hath now 2000 l. per annum Pension out of the Excise; and hath got in Boons 20000 l.

Cammelford. Sir William Godolphin, Knight, under Secretary to the Lord Arlington, now Ambassador in Spain, and lately turn'd Papist; hath got in Boons, 30000 l.

West-Lorr. John Trelavny, Esquire, Cup-Bearer to the King; Captain to a Troop of Horse in Ireland, and 200 l. per annum Pension.

John Trelavny, Esquire, own Son to honest Sir Jonathan Trelavny.

East-Lovv. Charles Osborn, the Treasurers Brother, has an Office in the Customs.

Henry Seymour, Esquire, of the Bed-Chamber, has the Hanaper-Office, and is Controller of the Customs at London; has got 40000 l. in Dutchy Leases, and other Boons.

Boffing. Robert Roberts, Esquire, Victuals and Protection in White-Hall, out of Priviledge Time; and 50 l. a Session.

St. Michael. Francis Lord Havvly, Captain of his Majesties Troop, Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to the Duke, and Court Buffoon; has got in Boons 20000 l.

St. Marys. Arthur Sprye, a Commissioner of the Prizes; 400 l. per annum Pension; has raised his Estate from 100 per annum to 800 by being a Member.

Sir Joseph Tredenham, the son of an Attorney, and by Marrying the Speakers Sister has got a considerable Pension.

Kellington. Sir Cyril Vyeh, Secretary to the Lieutenantcy in Ireland; Brother in Law to the two Earls of Bath, and St. Albans.

St. Bourchier Wyre. Sir Bridger Ray Carlile.

Sir Philip Howard, Captain of the Horse Guards, got in Patents and Boons 4000 l.

Sir Christopher Musgrave, Knight, Captain of a Foot Company 200 l. per annum Pension, and to succeed his Father in the Government of Carlisle.

Devon-Shire.

Sir Copelston Bampfild, Barronet; much addicted to Tippling, presented to the King by his pretended Wife, Betty Roberts, the Pall Mall—

Exeter. Sir James Smith, Knight, Major of the Kings

Regiment; 16000 l. in Boons. Kinsman to the Duke of Albermarle.

Thomas Walker. Esquire, a Commissioner of the Pittes, where he featherd his Nest to some purpose; 500 l. this session, besides preferring his Brother to be Collector of the Customs of Exeter.

Totnes. Sir Edmond Stymour, Barronet, the Speakers
Father, and an Indigent Pensioner.

Sir Thomas Berry, Knight, a Pensioner of 200 l. per an- num, got for him by the Lord Cliffard his Brother in Law.

Plymouth. Sir Gilbert Talbot, Knight, Master of the Jewel Office.

Plimpton. Sir Nicholas Slanning, Knight of the Bath, Sir George Carterets son in Law, the Kings Carver; 2000 l.
in Boons, and Governour of Pendennis, in Reversion.

Honinton. Sir Courtney Pool, first mover of the Chimny-Money, for which he had -----

Sir Peter Prideux, Knight, the Lord of Bath's Brother in Law, constant Court dinners and 300 l. per annum Pension.

Beer Alston. Sir John Maynard, Knight, the Kings Ser-jeant at Law.

Tiverton. Sir Henry Ford, once Secretary for Ireland, a Pension of 300 l. per annum, which is almost all he has to subsist on.

Dorset-Shire.

Corfe. Lord Latimer, son to the Lord Treasurer.

Lime Regis. Sir John Sharv, once a Vintners Boy; got of the Crown, out of the Customs, and by other ways, 60000 l.

VVeymouth. Sir VVinston Churchil, was a Commissioner of the Court of Claims in Wittam, now one of the Clerks of the Green Cloth. He presented his own Daughter to the Duke of York, and has got in Boons 10000 l. He has published in

In Print That the King may raise Money without his Parliament.

Brid-port. George Boreman, Esquire, once an Under-Clerk in the six Clerks Office, now Master of the Ballast Office (a Place no less Oppressive, than Illegal) worth 2500 l. per annum.

Warham. George Pitt, Quondam servant to the Duke of York, but turn'd out, and was promised to have the Money it cost him, 2500 l.

Durham.

John Tempest, Esquire, a Papist, a Pensioner and a Court dinner-Man; has got a Customer's Place at Hull for his Son, Essex.

Harwich. Thomas King, Esquire, a Pensioner for 50 l. a Session, &c. Meat, &c. Drink, and now and then a sute of Clothes.

Glocester.

Sir Baynham Throgmorton, a grant of Kingswood-Forrest, and 200 l. per annum.

Malden. Sir Richard Wiseman, a 1000 l. per annum Pension, and keeper of one of the Treasurer's publick Parliamentary Tables.

Sir William Wiseman at Sir Richard's Devotion.

Hant-Shire.

Winchester. Sir Robert Holmes, first an Irish Livery Boy, then a High-way-man, now Bashaw of the Isle of Wight, got in Boones, and by Rapine 100000 l. The Cursed Beginner of the two Dutch Wars.

Laurence Hide, the Elder, a Pension of 200 l. per annum, and a constant Court-dinner-man.

Southampton. Sir Richard Ford, Knight, Contriver of the two Dutch Wars, for which he had 100000 l. and yet is scarce able to live.

Thomas Knowles, Esquire, the Treasurers Kinsman, 400 l. per annum Pension.

Portsmouth. Sir George Carteret, Baronet, a French Man, Vice-Chamberlain to the once Treasurer of Ireland, and the Navy, in which two Places he Cheated the Crown of 400000 l. as upon account was made apparent; He has wisely conveyed great part of his Estate beyond Sea, therefore deservedly made a Privy Counsellour.

Petersfield. Thomas Neal, Esquire, now turn'd Brewer since he has consumed a rich Wifes Fortune, and his own Estate; he has a promise his son shall Marry Mall Davey's daughter, and to be made a Viscount, and maintained if his Brewhouse fail. Formerly called Golden Neal, now, Brazen Groom-Porter.

Stockbridge. Sir Robert Howard, Auditor of the Receipts of the Exchequer, worth 3000 l. per annum; many great Places and Boons he has had, but his W... Uphill spends all, and now refuses to Marry him.

Robert Philips, Esquire, Bed-chamber-man, got in Gifts 20000 l.

Nevvton in the Isle of Wight. Sir John Holmes, Sir Robt. Brother, a Cowardly baffled sea Captain, twice Boxed, and once Whipp'd with a Dog-whip, as many Gentlemen can testify; Chosen in the Night, without the Head Officer of the Town, and but one Burgess, yet Voted well Elected this last Session.

Sir Kingsmill Lucy, Barronet, has had 1000 l. and promised a Court Place.

Hereford.

Thomas Price, Esquire, 500 l. given him, and 300 l. per annum Pension, and Protection in White-Hall during Prorogations.

City of Hereford: Herbert Westphal, Esquire, 500 l. in money, and an Office in the Custom-house, worth 150 l. per annum.

Wobley. Sir John Barnaby, Knight, 500 l. given him.
Sir Thomas Williams, once a poor Quack Chymist, now the Kings Chymist, has got at least 40000 l. by making Pro-vocatives for Letchery, and yet at this time all his land is under Extent, and his Protection only keeps him out of Prison.

Hartford-Shire.

Sir Richard Franklin, a Pension of 400 l. per annum.

Huntingdon.

Town. Sir John Cotton, a mad man, who cut his own Throat, and now cuts his Country by his Vote.

Sir Lionel Walden, 8000 l. in the kings debt, a Black-Heath Captain, and a Papist, at present has a Company of Foot, and 10000 l. given him.

Kent.

Sir Thomas Peyton, the Coal-Farm, worth 2000 l. per annum, has had many Boons, and yet has spent all, and his own Estate to boot. This is paid the Informer.

Canterbury. Sir Edyard Masters, Knight, a great Witall, &c. Canterbury.

Canterbury. Thomas Hardness, Serjeant at Law, promised to be a Judge.

Rocheſter. Sir Francis Clerk, a Commissioner of the Prizes and a constant Receiver of all Publick money, and a constant diner at Court Tables.

Maidſton. Thomas Harlackenden, Esquire, whose only livelyhood is in his Pension.

Sir Robert Barnham also, and Quinborough. James Herbert Esquire, is but fifteen years old, but Son in Law to the Treasurer, and therefore of Age to dispose of the Peoples Money.

Lanca-Shire.

County. Sir Roger Bradshavy, a Papist, has a Lease from the Crown.

Lancaster. Richard Kirby, Esquire, one of a very small Estate, a Captain of Guards, and a Commissioner for the Hackney-Coaches, has had 5000^l in Boones.

Richard Harrison, Esquire, a small pension, proportionable to his understanding.

Preston. Edvard Rigby, Esquire, Serjeant at Law, promised to be a Welsh Judge.

Sir John Ostryay, Solicitor of the Duchy, and a considerable Boon in the Fee-Farm Rents.

Norton. Richard Lord Gorges, a Pension of 500 ^l per annum.

Clitheroe. Sir John Heath, Attorney of the Duchy, a great Drinker and a suspected Papist.

Sir Thomas Stringer, a Dancing-masters Son, got 30000^l under the Duke of Albamarle.

Charles Earl of Arundell, a poor Son, 500 ^l per annum Pension.

Sir Jeffery Chackery, Governour of Chester, a Pension of 500 ^l per annum.

Leicester

Leicester-Shire.

County. George Founs, Esquire, 500 l. out of the last Tax, and is a constant Receiver of all Taxes.

Town. Sir William Harlop, a Pension of 200 l. per annum, and promised to be Clerk of the Kitchen; threatens to sue his Town for his wages, because he hears they'll choose him no more.

Lincoln-Shire.

Sir Robert Carr, Barronet, 10000 l. in Boones. Chancellor of the Dutchy. Two Wives living at this time; one, Arlington's Sister.

Grimsby. William Broxholm, Esquire, an Indigent Papist, has had 5000 l. given him.

Stamford. Peregrine Bertie, Esquire, the Treasurers Brother in Law, has a Pension and a Troop of Horse.

Middelfex.

Sir Lancelot Lake, much in debt, has a promise that his Elder Brother's Son shall not be naturalized, a notorious Cuckold.

Sir Thomas Allat, whose understanding is as great as his honesty; a close embracer of Rogues, had a Boon of 10000 l.

Westminster. Sir Philip Wentworth, since Secretary to Arch-Bishop Land, before that a poor Singing Boy, got artificially from the Treasurer Southampton, and the King 40000 l. Now Clerk of the Signet. Never lyes more than when he professes to speak the sincerity of his heart.

Sir Richard Everard, and that being near spent must have more, or seek a new way to get bread.

Norfolk,

Norfolk.

Christopher Ivy, Esquire, a Prisoner in the Kings Bench, an old decrepid Letcher, has 50 l. a Session.

Norwich. Francis Cary, Esquire, No better than Ivy.

Lin Regis. Robert Cook, Esquire, the Treasurers Son in Law, who by his priviledge protects himself from the payment of the Mony (viz. 8000 l.) that was spent at his Election.

Robert Wright, Esquire, Pepis his Pensioner, and has 40 s. a day allowed him by the Sea men, as their Council, but uses them as he does the Nation, viz. betr...

Yarmouth. Sir William Doyley, got 7000 l. out of the Dutch Prisoners allowance, and starved many of them to death; a Pension of 500 l. per annum; his son is a Teller in the Exchequer, and holds his own worth 1000 l. per annum.

Thetford. Sir Allen Aspley, the Kings Falconer, worth 1200 l. per annum, the Dukes Treasure; worth 4000 l. got by Boones and other Acts, 60000 l. a Red Letter man, if of any Religion.

Sir Joseph Williamson, once a poor Foot Boy, then a Servitor; now Principal Secretary of State, and Pensioner to the French King.

Castle Rising. Samuel Pepys Esquire, once a Taylour, then serving men to the Lord Sandwich; now Secretary to the Admiralty; got by Passes, and other illegal wayes 40000 l. a Northampton.

Town. Henry Lord Obryan, by his Wifes Interest has got of Secretary Williamson, 1500 l. and the Reversion of Cobham Park, and other Estates that were in the Crown, worth 13000 l. per annum, his son married the Treasurers Daughter.

Higham Ferris. Sir Levvis Palmer, a great Trader in Protections, and sells cheap; his Father was Attorney Generall; Brackley. Robert Spencer, Esquire, a Bed-chamber-man to the King, and in Debt over ears.

Northumberland.

Sir John Ferrvick, a Captain under the Duke of Monmouth, and promised a place at Court; had 2000 l. given him for his Election.

Sir Ralph Delaval, had 2000 l. given him, and has a Pension of 500 l. Per annum.

Nerv Castle. Sir Francis Anderson a Pensioner to the Treasurer.

Morpeth. Sir George Dorrning, a poor child, bred upon Charity; like Judas, betrayed his Master. What then can his Country expect? He drew and advised the Oath of renouncing the Kings Family, and took it first himself. For his Honesty, Fidelity, &c. Rewarded by his Majesty with 80000 l. at least, and is a Commissioner of the Customs, the House-Bell, to call the Courtiers to Vote, at 6 a Clock at night; an Exchequer teller.

Berrvick. Daniel Collingwood, Esquire, a Court Janizary, a Pension of 300 l. per annum, Governour of Holy-Island.

Vicount Dunblain, 15 years old, the Treasurers Son, bribed the Mayor falsely to return him.

Notingham-Shire.

Sir Francis Leake, Barronet, Governor of the Block-house at Gravesend, a Foot Company and 500 l. in money.

East-Retford. Sir Edward Dearing, Barronet, Commissioner of the Court of Claims in Ireland; the Chancellours
Bro;

Brother in Law, promised to be Secretary of State after Coventry, now Commissioner of the Customs in London, worth 1200*l.* per annum, Oxford-Shire.

University. Lawrence Hyde, Master of the Robes to the King, has had in Boons 20000 l.

Woodstock. Thomas Howard, Esquire, the Lord of Sussex's Brother, 400 l. per annum Pension.

Rutland.

Edward Noel, Esquire, Lord Lieutenant of Hants-shire, Lord Warden of the New-Forrest, and other great Favours promised him; which he need not doubt off, being the Treasurers Nephew.

Shrop-Shire.

Sir Francis Laveley, a Pensioner; one of the Horses in Madam Fontletts Coach.

Ludlow. Somerset Fox, a Pension of 300 per annum.

Sir Job Charlton Serjeant at Law, Chief Justice of Chester, a dull Welch Judge, 500 l. per annum for his Speakers place.

VVenlock. George Wild, Esquire, a Commissioner of the Excise in Ireland, 2000 l. in money; a declared Enemy to his Country.

Bishops Castle. Edmond VVarring Esquire, a Commiffic-ner of the Excise, a Pension to keep him out of Prison. Sir Job Charlton's Brother in Law.

William Oakley, Esquire, Brother in Law to Charlton, and Waring, has a small Pension.

Somerset-Shire.

Bath. Sir William Basset, Henry Seymour's son in Law 1000 l. given him by Clifford, he has a promise of a place in the Law Act, alwayes drunk when he can get money, Wells. Maurice Lord Fitzharding, one of that Family which had from the Crown in Boons and Places 200000 l. besides the unnatural honour given to the younger Brother for pimping, which came afterwards to the Father, and so to this Lord. He's Collopel of Horse in Ireland.

Taunton. Sir William Portman, he hopes to be a Lord; much Priest-ridden.

Bridge-water. Sir Edmond Windham, Knight-Marshal in boons, 5000 l. His Wife was the Kings Nurse.

Mynhead. Thomas Windham, Esquire, Bed-chamberman to the King, as also Querrey. He married a Court

Stafford-Shire.

Randal Edgerton, Esquire, a Captain in the Guards, has had in Boons 10000 l.

Litchfield. Richard Diet, Esquire, a sea Captain, Kinsman to Sir Robert Carr, 400 l. per annum Pension.

Walter Chetwynd, courted, treated, and complimented out of his Vote.

Newcastle under-Lyne. Levinson Gower, Esquire, son in Law to the Earl of Bath, had a great Estate fell to him by chance, but honesty and wit never came by accident.

Suffolk.

Sir Henry Felton, a Pensioner, and his son a Bed-chamberman.

Dunwiche. Sir John Pettus a Pension, of 300 l. per annum; all his Estate is under Extent.

VVilliam VVood, Esquire, Master of the Kings Dock, and his Ship-wright, and a violent man for Taxes.

Sudbury. Sir Robert Cordel, a poor Gentleman that has almost spent all.

Major Cornvval, a Pension of 200 l. per annum, and a Captain in the Army.

Eye. Sir George Reeves, though of a great Estate, yet content with a small Pension; and promises that he shall be paid a great sum of money, that he has in the Bankers hands. Of no Religion.

Robert Reeves, his son, no less than the Treasurers Table is sufficient to feed his Monstrous Carcase.

Edmunds Bury. Sir John Duncomb, a Pensioner, of 2000 l. per annum; in Boons 20000.

VVilliam Duncomb his son, Parisfari.

Surrey.

Sir Adam Brown, Barronet, the Treasurers Cousin-german, and the Duke of York's Vassall.

Southwark. Sir Tho. Bloodworth, a Mercenary Alderman, of London, not to be forgotten for his pissing out the Fire.

Blechingley. Sir VVilliam Hayward, a Commissioner in the sale of the Fee-farm-rents, by which he got 2000 l. a Privy-chamber-man, and 2000 l. in money.

Sir Edw. Bysh. King at Arms, 100 a Session yet very poor.

Rygate. Sir John VVorden, the Duke of York's Secretary, a favourer of Popery.

Guilford. Thomas Delinghoy Esquire, a Scotch serving-man, a creature of Launddales, chosen by the Duke of York; who was in Pension at his Election, and voted for him.

Sir VVilliam Morley, Knight of the Bath, a constant Courtier.

Suffex.

Chichester. Richard May, Esquire, a Lawyer, Recorder of Chichester, a Pensioner, and promised to be Heir to Bap. May, if he Vote.

Horsham. Sir John Covell, Baronet, wheedled with promises, much in debt.

Mid-hurst. Baptist May, Esquire, Privy-Purse, 1000 l. per annum allowance, got besides in Boons for secret service, 40000 l. This is he that said, 500 l. per annum was enough for a Country Gentleman to drink Ale, eat Beef, and to sink with, &c.

Lewes. Sir John Stapely, an Indigent.

Sir Thomas Woodcock, Deputy Governour of Windsor Castle, a Foot Company, 200 l. per annum Pension. He set up a Deed to gain his Necess Estate, which was found to be forg'd by a Jury at the Kings-Bench Bar, and now stands upon his Priviledge, to prevent a Decree in Chancery to have it canceled.

Stamings. Henry Goring, Esquire, 200 l. per annum Pension, and Court dinners.

Bramber. Pierce Goring, Esquire, 200 per annum Pension.

Newshoram. Henry Goring, Esq. 500 l. and promised a Pension.

East-Grimstead. Edward Sackvil, Esquire, Lieutenant to the Yeoman of the Guard.

Arrendel. Roger, Earl of Orrery, President of Munster, and a Regiment of Horse in Ireland.

Francis Vicount Langford, formerly Treasurer of Ireland, which he sold for 14000 l. now a Pension of 500 per annum.

Warwick-Shire.

Sir Robert Holt, Barronet, 1000 l. given him and, Protection.

rection from his Creditors; brought out of Goal this last Session, when outlaw'd after Judgment.

Sir Henry Puckering, alias Nevvton, Pay-Master to the Popish standing-Army, and allowance for keeping a Table every Session.

Warrvick Town. Sir Francis Compton Knight, Captain of a Troop of Horse.

Westmerland.

Sir Philip Musgrave, Barronet, a Regiment of Foot, Governour of Carlisle; given him in Fee-farm-Rents 6000*l*.

Appleby. Thomas Tuston, Esquire, Bed-chamber-man to the Duke of York.

Wilt-Shire.

Nerv-Sarum. Sir Stephen Fox, from a poor Foot-boy, and then singing-boy, has got in places by the Court, 15000 pounds. Clerk of the Green Cloth.

Wilton. Sir John Berkenhead, a poor Alehouse-keeper's Son, got by lying, to be one of the Masters of the Request and Faculty Office; in Boons 3000*l*.

Hindon. Edward Seymour had for four year 1000*l*. Pension to betray the Country Party, for which he then appeared. But since he hath shewn himself barefac'd; and is Treasurer of the Navy, and Speaker, one of the Commissioners of the Admiralty, and of the Popish Cabal.

Robert Hyde, Esquire, had sold his Vote before he came into the House, and had 1000*l*. for this last (his first) Session.

Westbury. Thomas Wanklin, Esquire, once a poor serving-man, now one of the Commissioners of the Excise in Ireland, and 50*l*. a Session. Kept an Inn at Kingston three years, now keeps a Tavern in Essex Buildings in the Strand.

Devizes. George Johnson, Esquire, a Lawyer, and a Welch

Welch Judg, the Treasurers Sollicitor, and an impudent --- has the Reversion of the Master of the Rols; but some say, that's onely in trust for Baron Bertie.

Chipenham. Francis Gwyn, Esquire, one of the Com-missioners of the Excise in Ireland; had 500*l.* given him.

Malmsbury. Philip Howard Esquire, of the Dukes Bed-chamber, 300*l.* per annum Pension.

Sir Thomas Escourt, Reversioner of the Judge of the Marthallie, his Fathers own son, converted to the Church of Rome by his young handsom Mother in Law, with whom he's very inward.

Crecklade. Sir John Earnley, a Commissioner of the Na-vy, and Chancellour of the Exchequer; allwayes Votes as directed.

Bedyvin. Henry Clerk, an Indigent Commissioner of the Prizes; and a place in the Custom House at Bristol, worth 200*l.* Per anum.

Ludgarshal. Daniel Finch, Esquire the Chancellors son; William Ashburnham, Esquire, got by the Court 50000*l.* Cofferer.

George Leg, Esquire, supposed to be a Papist; of the Dukes Bedchamber, and Governor of Portsmouth, in Boons 40000*l.*

Old Sarum. Sir Edward Nicholas, Knight, got by the Court 10000*l.*

Malborough. Sir John Elvres, Knight, very poor, but a place in Ire and of 300*l.* per annum; a Court Admirer.

Worcester-Shire.

Sam. Sandys senior, Esquire, a boon given him in the Excise, which he sold for 13500.

Worcester. Thomas Street, Esq. a Welch Judge, promised other preferments; had 500 given him.

Dailvich. Sam. Sandys, junior, Esq. son of - 13500*l.*

Henry Coventry, Secretary of State, the breaker of the Trip ple-

Tripple-League, as he himself affirmed when he went to Sweden.

Evesham. Sir John Hammer, a prodigal Gentleman of the Horse to the Master of the Horse; Commissioner of the Excise in Ireland, and a Troop of Horse in Ireland, 2000 l. given him in money.

York-Shire.

Conyers Darcy, Esquire, assisted by the Court in stealing the Lord Lexington's sister from her Guardian for his son.

Sir Thomas Slingsby, Governour of Scarborough Castle, never gave his Country one Vote, who voted all for him when chosen Knight of the Shire.

Knaresborough. Valiant sir John Talbot, a Foot Company, a Company of Dragoons, a Commissioner of the Prizes, of the Excise, and for the sale of Fee-farm-rents; 800 l. per annum out of the Wiltshire Excise, the Reversion of the Jewel Office.

Rippon. Sir John Nicholas, Knight of the Bath, Clerk of the Council, got by the Court 40000 l.

Sir Edmand Jennings, made High Sheriffe of Yorkshire (against a Vote of Parliament) which is worth 1000 l. Promised a Pension, and place at Court.

Heddon. Henry Guy, Esq. Groom of the Bed-chamber.

Alborough. Sir Solomon Syvayl, Barronet, one whose word will not pass for 3 d. where he is known; got by the Court 600 l. an old Papist, if not Priest, but his Bald Pate excuses his Tonfure; a forger of Wills.

Sir John Risby, the Treasurer's Creature; sold himself, and Country, to him.

Thrisk. Sir William Wentworth, sir Allen Appley's son in Law, much in Debt; His Wife has a place under the Dutcheſs of York, he a Pension of 500 per annum, in boons 3000 l.

North-Allerton. Sir Gilbert Gerrard, a Soldier of Fortune; he has got by the Court, and the late Bishop of Durham (whose Daughter he Married) 30000*l.* but at present 'tis most spent; but he hopes his Friend the Treasurer will repair all Breaches.

Pontefract. Sir William Lorrther, Commissioner of the Customs, a man whose Honesty and Integrity oftener fails him than his Wit.

Cinque-Ports.

Hastings. Sir Dennis Ashburnham, Married Mr. John Ashburnham's Daughter; got in Places 10000*l.*

Rye. Sir John Robinson, Barronet, Lieutenant of the Tower; got in Places and Gifts, by his Wife's Interest and other wayes 40000*l.* Sheriff of London at the Execution of Dr. Hervus, and a Notorious R. in the late Times.

Hube. John Harvey, Esquire, the Queens Treasurer, that told the King, He had been Voting against his Conscience to serve his Majesty.

Sir Leolin Jenkins, son of a Taylour, Judge of the Admiralty; was in hopes to be Arch-Bishop of Canterbury; employed in Four Embassies; and whose indefatigable industry in promoting a Peace for France, has been our ----- He affirmed in the House of Commons, That upon necessity the King might raise Mones without Act of Parliament.

Dover. George Montague, Esquire, Abbot Montague's Brother, Master of St. Katherines Hospitall in gifts 3000*l.*

Sandvitch. John Stroud, Governour of Dover, Commissioner of the Prizes; got by several indirec^t wayes, from the King and Kingdom, 10000*l.*

Bevv-Morris. John Robinson, Esquire, 400*l.* per annum Pension.

Wales.

Brecknock. Sir Herbert Price, Barronet, Master of the Household, got in Boons 10000 l.

Cardiganshire. Sir Charles Cotterel, Master of the Ceremonies, got in gifts, 11000 l.

Garmarthen-Torven. John Lord Vaughan, Governour of Jamaica; 1000 l. per annum Pension.

Robert Lord Buckley, the Chancellours Brother in Law, by whose meanes he is Guardian to Sir William Williams; worth 1000 l. per annum to him.

Denby-shire. John Wyn, Esquire, 400 l. given him in money.

Flint-Shire. Sir Thomas Hanmer, Barronet, 500 per annum Pension.

Flint. Roger Wheatly, Esquire, Knight Harbenger, Farmer of the Post Office, by which he has got a vast Estate.

Merioneth. Andrew Myrpoort, Esquire, 400 l. per annum Pension; a Squire of the Body.

THE Publisher begs pardon of those Gentlemen here named, if he has, for want of better Information, undervalued the price and merit of their Voices; which he shall be ready upon their Advertisement to amend: But more particularly he must beg the Excuse of many more Gentlemen, no less deserving, whom he hath omitted; not out of any Malice, or for want of good Will, but of timely Notice; But in general, The House was, if they please to remember, this last Session, by three of their own Members told, That there were several Papists, Fifty Outlawrs, and Pensioners without number; So that upon examination, they may arrive at a better knowledg amongst themselves, and do one another more right, then we (howsoever well affected) can possibly do without doors.